It is not the critic who counts;
and not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled or where the doer of deeds could have done them better.
The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena;
whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood;
who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again:
who knows the great enthusiasm, the great devotion,
and spends himself in a worthy cause;
who, at the best knows the triumph of high achievement:
and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly,
so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.

- Theodore Roosevelt

September 1976

Dear Mountain Folk,

In the past four years the Intramural Recreation Department has developed a program of activities in both the team and individual sports to meet some of the many interests of our students. It is a program based on participation, enjoyment and a wholesome use of your leisure hours at Mansfield State College. The program has grown in popularity to the point where last school year eleven hundred eighty-four students participated in at least one of the many sports offered.

I would like to invite those who have participated in the program last year to become even more involved this year. I encourage our new students to join in the fun by becoming an active and enthusiastic participant.

Thanks go out to all of last year's student employees for a well done job. Special thanks are extended to Tim Carr, Lisa Messing, Jean Nachtwey, Eileen Shebby and Kathy Kelleher for their work in the office in helping make the program run smoothly.

Sincerely,

A. Hugh Schintzius

HOW DID YOU PLAY?

How did you play when the game was on,
When the odds were great and hope was gone?
When the enemy team, with aim so true
Was dragging the victory away from you?
When strength and speed and endurance quit,
Did honor keep pace with determined grit?
Did you keep the faith with the rules of the game?
Did you play up square without fear or shame?
Did your smile of cheer make the team your friend,
As you fought it through to the bitter end?
Did your self-respect rise a notch or two?
Are you a bigger man now the game is through?
